U. S. Army Strategic Intelligence School

TO: Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

1. The U. S. Army Strategic Intelligence School is preparing the schedule for the Associate Course which it gives to Army, Navy, and Air Force Reserve Officers who are on two weeks active duty each summer. The course will run this year from 12 through 23 June. The members of this class (approximately 130 this year) comprise a well-educated group whose civilian occupation in the majority of cases lies in the fields of education, law or business. Past experience has proven that keen interest has been evinced in the course due in large part to the outstanding presentations given by members of your organization. The following lectures should be given during this two-week period:

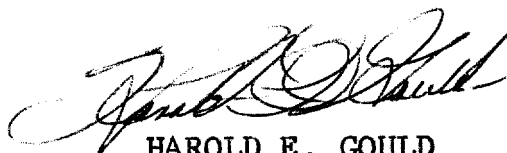

- a. Nature and Significance of Strategic Intelligence
Monday, 12 June, 1330-1520
- b. The National Security Structure
Tuesday, 13 June, 0930-1020
- c. Mission, Functions and Organization of CIA
Tuesday, 13 June, 1040-1230
- d. The Strategic Intelligence Process
Wednesday, 14 June, 1040-1130
- e. Production of National Estimates
Wednesday, 14 June, 1140-1230
